

individual members send cards or letters carried.
A minute silence was observed in ~~rest~~ memory of Mrs Collier, who had passed away recently.

Mrs Selby thanked the Institute for flowers sent to Mrs Jones during her illness.

Mrs Huse showed ~~the~~ the bag she had made from the pattern and instruction which Mrs Hunt had received from England, this was very much admired.

Mrs J Pratt and a few other ladies said they would meet and make bags from the book of instruction sent.

Mrs Simentin then took the chair for the programme.

Mrs W. M. Neil gave a piano solo which was much enjoyed, this was followed by a very fine address on "Shanks' gear" by Mr C. Freeman. Mrs Vera Keffler pleased us all with her vocal solo and Mrs Embury gave us a splendid paper on "Historical Research". Mrs Simentin thanked all who had helped in the programme, and invited us all to stay for a cup of tea which had been prepared by her committee this was much enjoyed. The meeting closed with God Save the King.

52 members

8 fees paid

6 visitors

M. Dale