Conductor

GEORGE E. HOUSLANDER

The teacher-conductor has had an outstanding musical career in the professional field and as a musical educator. During World War II he was first trombonist with the R.C.A.F. Central Band at Ottawa. From 1945 to 1948 he furthered his studies at the Toronto Conservatory, Ontario, and the College of Education in Instrumental and Vocal Music. During this period he gained valuable experience playing with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, on C.B.C. radio, and the pit orchestra at the Royal Alexandra Theatre. He returned to Hamilton in 1948 to open up the first

Instrumental Music Programme in Hamilton Secondary Schools. In 1949 he formed the R.C.A.F. No. 16 Wing Band (reserve) and established it as a top Canadian band winning the Canadian National Exhibition open Class "A" award on two occasions. He has been honoured on several occasions as guest conductor at several University music clinics in the United States of America.
