

THE ONLY WAY
THEY'LL GET HIM OUT OF THAT CUSHY OFFICE
HIS IS BY BURNING
THE JOINT DOWN

URED EVER ALONE OUT OF

and grandmothers comprising the "just for the fun of it" band with Boll och, Doris Partridge, Margaret Armstrong. Behind, from rice Bennett, Mary Banks, Mary Brent, Eva Flaxman, Marjorie back, right, Beatrice Dudley.

Hats and corsages are also right out of the kitchen. Paper cups, pot lids, picnic plates and egg cups are parts of hats worn by Margaret Roxborough, Dorothy Payne and Beatrice Dudley. Their good-enough-to-eat corsages are made of celery, carrot tops, rosettes of radishes and carrot rings.