

Minutes of Monthly Executive and Director's Meetings

October 18th 1928

The regular meeting of the Vinemount Women's Institute was held at the home of the Vice Pres. Mrs. Geo Gliddon. The opening exercises were the usual ones, with the Pres. in charge. Roll call was answered with uses of old hose.

The minutes of the last mtg. were read and confirmed, after which several communications asking for aid, were read by the Pres. and the Sec. In reply to these appeals the fol. were moved & secd. $2. each to Child Welfare, Red Cross, & Col. N. C. A. by Mrs. A. Ready & Hazel Sturcle

$5 to Navy League by ~~Mrs. A. Ready~~ also to assume share in

Wreath for Sold. Mon. by Mrs. Althous & Edw. Travis

In the absence of Miss Bertram, Mrs. Little gave Flower Fund report, and Mrs. French the report for the Well-Baby clinic

Next on the program was a very pleasing piano solo by Mrs. Rice of

The Pres. called on Mrs. Adam Rich, who spoke ^{Stoney Creek} on "Enthusiasm"

Everyone should be enthusiastic over all they have to do, if they wish to succeed, even if you be called a fanatic.

Mrs. Rich urged attendance at Ham Area Conv. and at the close of her address the fol. were appointed delegates thereto. Mrs. Hazel Sturcle, Mrs. Geo Gliddon & Annie Johnston

Mrs. Rice again favored with an Inst. selection, ^{on motion of Mrs. Thompson}

Past-pres. Mrs. Walter Smith took "Making Life a Masterpiece" as her subject. As the smaller details in a picture decide its fate as a doubt or a masterpiece, so the little virtues of life, like cheerfulness, make it a failure or a success.
