

Madeline Armstrong

Madeline Louisa Armstrong born on January 28, 1911. She is the third daughter of John S. Tallman and Louisa F. Henry. She had two sisters Maude Harrington and Mrs. Creamer McIntosh.

The family left Vinemount in 1911 and moved to Hamilton. Madeline attended West Avenue and Sinson Street Public Schools and graduated from a commercial course at the Hamilton Central Collegiate Street. Following that she worked three years for Otis Fenson Elevator Co.

She joined the First United Church Hamilton in 1923. Now she attends Rock Chapel where she helps in the U.C.W. She puts together quilts and helps in many ways with the supply work.

Madeline married Clare R. Armstrong on April 18, 1930, returning to the old family home in Vinemount in 1933. They have two children Ferne, Mrs. John Boyko and David now married and both living in Vinemount. Clare and Madeline also have three grandchildren.

An active member of our Institute serving as flower convenor now and was secretary from 1948 to 1951.

Madeline likes to do everything and is an avid reader, especially of history.
