Doris Deuxberry

The second oldest in a family of six, Doris came from Gateshead England with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Straughan in 1930. Mrs. Straughan was the former Margaret Noddings.

She has two sisters Joyce, Mrs. Peatfield of Hamilton and Joan, Mrs. Don Tweedle of Tweedside, as well as three brothers Thomas Blair and Robert of Hamilton and Arthur the youngest in the air force in Edmonton.

After coming from England she settled in Hamilton where she attended Ballard school and Delta Collegiate. Later she worked at the United Cigar Store for seven years.

On October 23, 1948, she married Ralph Deuxberry in St. James Anglican Church, Hamilton. They have five children, Joan, Mrs. Gordon McLean, James, who married Janet Millen in November 1974, Sandra, Wendy and Kathy at home. They have three grandchildren, Marjorie, Sarah and Becky.

They operated a fruit farm on Barton Street Stoney Creek until 1959 when they moved to Vinemount on the Purcell farm, Mud Street and Eighth Road.

Doris is a member of Tweedside Church and has many offices in Tweedside U.C.W. She joined the Vinemount Institute in and has been President for the past four years. Her hobbies are all types of handicrafts and she can turn her hand to any type of work that is needed.
