

Faye Carter

Born to Hannah and H. Allen Stokoe of Bloomfield, Carleton County, New Brunswick, a little daughter five and a half pounds on July 5th 1898 named Faye Dessa. The Stokoes have two other daughters Bona the oldest and Isadora younger.

In 1905 the family moved to Woodstock which is the capital of the County seat. There Faye attended the schools graduating from High School in 1917. After taking a secretarial course she worked in offices of two local firms. Also taught school a year. In 1928, September 12, she married Fred A. Carter they lived in Boston Mass. for two years, returning to Carleton County where they farmed for twenty years. Two sons were born to them Ronald and Dale.

In 1957 Fred and Faye moved to Hamilton where the sons had married and were settling down. Now living in Vinemount and more than pleased to have followed their family here where they can love and see their nine grandchildren at will. Her life has been one blessed with many friends and cheerful and practically care free.

Faye joined Vinemount Institute in 1973 and has helped wherever possible. At present she is Family and Consumer Affairs convenor. A member of rock Chapel Church and an active member in the U.C.W. work also. She has many and varied hobbies. Tatting is one of her specialties. Her mother was one of the first guests in a W.I. Home for the aged in New Brunswick.