

at crafts, leather wearing, knitting chair, caining etc. Pensions are given to blind people over 40 years of age. The whole aim and object of the Institute, is to help the blind people to help themselves.
27000 volumes of Bibles, printed in Brail are placed in the main library in Toronto.
The latest development for the benefit of the blind, is a talking book, portable phonograph. Following this splendid address, a special Collection was taken for this most charitable work amounting to $9,012. Delightful vocal solos were rendered by Mrs T. E.
McCullum, Miss Bernice Lord and Miss Marquerite Peat. The ticket for the quilt was drawn by little Sandra Biggar and the lucky winner was Mrs Elizabeth Patterson. Following the singing of the National anthem a dainty lunch was served.

E. Walters Pres.

E. Budge Sec