

"The Farmer's magazine contest. Mrs. Picken offered the use of her home for our January meeting, when Mrs. Gordon Carpenter would have charge of the programme, and our Roll call would be answered by "Something on current Events". Our programme was under the direction of our Community Activities Convenor Mrs. M. Cudney who introduced our guest speaker Mrs. J. McDonough of Capetown who gave us a most inspiring address taking as her subject "Our duty at the present time as Canadians and as W. I. members. Our duty now lies closer at home than at the battlefield stressing that our great duty is towards the people who have come to our shores. Every nation of the world is represented in Vancouver, and there are 70 different languages spoken in Canada. We as W. I. members should get in touch with these people who have come into our country mingle with them and try to educate them in our ways. Mrs. McDonough closed her address with the beautiful
