

the marked improvement of the new Public school Readers. Books help to make children completely happy. Books are as necessary to children as candy and toys. It should be the obligation of every mother to help the children to read.
 Put a bookshelf in every room. It was decided that we should hold a hobby display at our next meeting for which Mrs Lamont offered her home.
 A very unusual and interesting feature was a muffin display, to which several of the members contributed.
 These were judged by Mrs C. A. Alderson, Mrs McCollum and Mrs Judge. The prize ^{for the pie} for the best was awarded to Mrs Boettger. Following the singing of the National anthem a delightful lunch was served, when the muffins were well tested. Collection $36.77
