

book. Miss Jean Carpenter collects cooky recipes and is an expert on cooky making and had samples for us to partake of with the lunch. Mrs Gordon Carpenter stated that darning seemed to be her hobby. Mrs Baetger specializes in fancy work. Mrs Jessie Biggar, our quilt expert had a special quilt patch on display. Mrs W Barnard's main hobby is making something new out of something old and had on display one of Mr Barnard's suits, made out of Mr Barnard's trousers. Mrs Peat mentioned that interior decorating was her special hobby. Mrs Cottingham another who delights in collecting antiques had a scroll of paintings on the life of Christ painted in the year 1805; and also a copy of what is known as the smallest Bible in the world. Mrs Milliken demonstrated her special hobby of music by rendering a delightful vocal solo. Mrs Chalock had some of her crochet work as well as several pieces of glass some of it over 120 years old. Mrs Howard Smith and Mrs Ray Parke delighted the ladies with the display of their beautiful collection of spoons from all