

hand, to be used towards our jam project. The auditors report was given by Mrs ^{L. E.} Carley. Mrs E. Walters occupied the chair during the election of officers and called on Mrs Gordon Carpenter chairman of the nominating committee to present the slate of officers suggested. This report met with the approval of all present, and so was moved by Mrs Gordon Carpenter and seconded by Mrs Harry Walters our new President Mrs M. Cudney then took the chair and asked for the co-operation of everyone, and spoke highly of the splendid work of our past President Mrs E. Wittmer. Mrs Wittmer very graciously responded.

The grandmothers had an excellent program prepared. The first number was a reading by Mrs Howard Smith entitled "Little things", followed by delightful solos by Mrs T. E. McCollum who is a real old fashioned grandmother ^{going by the name of Granny Doalittle.} wearing a most fitting costume. another delightful reading was given by Mrs Gordon Carpenter. Mrs M. Cudney then recited a poem, which
