

she had memorized at school 51 years ago. Another delightful feature was the presentation of a beautifully decorated birthday cake to the oldest Grandmother and the one having the most Grandchildren, she being Mrs. W. D. Fletcher who was 70 years old that day. Each Grandmother present was given a small token, a cake of soap, and candy sticks. The meeting closed by the singing of the National anthem, after which a dainty lunch was served. Mrs. K. Milliken on behalf of the group, moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Carpenter for her most kind hospitality.
