The birthday meeting of the Winona Womens Institute was held at the Fifty United Church. The Institutes from Stoney Creek, Community Beach, Saltfleet, Voremount & Mount Albion were invited and they all had a representation.

The meeting was opened with the "Opening Ode" with Miss Nora Carpenter presiding. The president welcomed the visiting Institutes. Mrs. Carscallen, president of Area Convention gave greetings from the Area.

Mrs. Dickinson - Vice President of the District gave greetings.

Miss Carpenter then made a presentation to Mrs. Mary McIntyre, past president for a period of the six years she served as president.

We celebrated the birthday of the Institute with this special meeting. Mrs. Mary McIntyre, historical convenor presented the "Fashions of Yesterday" in which 25 old fashioned dresses and their accessories were modelled.

In the intermission there was a musical with trumpets by Marlene & Marilyn Long accompanied by Mrs. Reid Smith.

Mrs. Glen Leinke gave the background music for the models. Meeting was closed with God Save the Queen. Spicy refreshments of birthday cakes & Ice Cream were served.
