

Clasping hands through a combined engagement and wedding ring which topped a handsome cake, at the reception after their wedding, in St. John's Church, Winona, are shown Mr. and Mrs. William John McKinley. The bride is Mr. and Mrs. James Riley's daughter, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McKinley.

March 6, 1948 Thompson-Parker Photo

McKinley—Riley 1948

The Ven. Archdeacon G. F. Scovil, Winona, officiated at the wedding which took place in St. John's Anglican Church, Winona, at 3:30 o'clock, on Saturday, March 6, when Marjorie Velma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Riley, became the bride of Mr. William J. McKinley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McKinley, all of this city.

Tall white candles, white snapdragon on the altar, and daffodils and white snapdragon in standards, white bows with tiny clusters of pink sweet peas marking the pews, made up decorations in the church. Mr. J. Lorne Hodd presided at the organ, and accompanied Miss Marguerite Hodd in the singing of O Perfect Love and For You Alone, the music for the first solo having been specially written by Mr. Hodd.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown gracefully-fashioned with a very full skirt falling from the scalloped waistline into a long train. Her long veil of satin-embroidered French tulle was caught to a headdress of orange blossoms. She carried a white Prayer Book adorned with gardenias.

Her only attendant was Mrs. Ethel Baisley, gowned in white and soft blue figured crepe, her powder blue hat trimmed with blue tulle and white daisies. Her cascade bouquet consisted of Joanna Hill roses and forget-me-nots. Mr. Allan McKinley was best man, while those ushering were Messrs. E. L. Crosthwaite and P. C. Marshall.

A reception followed at the Village Inn, Grimsby, with 75 guests present. Mrs. Riley received, attired in a navy blue crepe ensemble, her navy straw hat trimmed with flowers, and her corsage formed of white carnations. A grey and blue printed silk jersey and grey crepe frock with navy accessories, was worn by the mother of the groom, who assisted. Her flowers were Cardinal carnations.

After their honeymoon at Tally-Ho Inn, Huntsville, the couple will reside at Winona. Going away, the bride was in a brown and white checked taffeta dress, powder blue coat trimmed with beaver, and chocolate brown accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

For Bride-Elect

Many delightfully arranged parties have been given in honour of Miss Marjorie Riley, whose marriage to Mr. William McKinley takes place on Saturday, March 6. Those who have entertained include: Mrs. J. C. Riley, Mrs. Harry Roberts, Mrs. J. Todd and Mrs. William Pett, aunts of the bride at a kitchen shower; Miss Ilene Grills, Winona, linen shower; Miss Kay McKinley miscellaneous shower; The stenographic staff of Morden, Helwig and Ferrie, Ltd., dinner and presentation; Miss Doris Glassford, miscellaneous shower, at the home of Mrs. Cecil Moorehouse; Mesdames Ted Crosthwaite, Ethel Paisley and Jean Rowe at the home of the last-mentioned, crystal shower; Miss Mickie McDougall, afternoon tea and personal shower.

Feb 17 Mrs. W. C. Dawe 1948

Winona, Jan. 19 — A lifelong resident of Saltfleet Township, Mrs. William C. Dawe died at her home on No. 8 Highway, Winona, on Saturday. The former Minnie E. Smith, she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Smith, and was born in Saltfleet. She was a member of the United Church and had been active in the different women's organizations of the Winona church. She was also associated with the Women's Institute and the United Empire Loyalists for many years. Surviving, besides her husband, are two sons, Harold, of Winona, and Frederick, of Hamilton; also a brother, E. O. Smith, of Winona. Funeral service will be held at her late home on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Winona Cemetery.

DAWE — At Winona, on Saturday, January 17, 1948, Minnie E. Dawe, beloved wife of William C. Dawe. Resting at her late residence, No. 8 highway, where funeral service will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 p.m. Interment in Winona Cemetery.

WEAFER — Suddenly, at the Hamilton General Hospital, on Thursday, May 13, 1948, William Whittaker Weaver, beloved husband of Lillian H. Naish, Winona, Ontario, aged 59 years. Resting at the Funeral Home of J. H. Robinson and Company Limited. Service in the chapel on Saturday at 8:30 p.m. Interment in Stoney Creek Cemetery.

Mrs. John Henry Basley

Mrs. John Henry Basley, the former Sarah Ann Horton, died yesterday at her home in Winona in her 84th year. She had been in failing health for some time although her death was unexpected. She was a member of St. John's Anglican Church, Winona. Her husband, John Henry Basley, predeceased her. Surviving are two daughters, Miss Jennie M. Basley, at home, and Mrs. Frank Baker, of Hamilton; two sons, H. Clifford, of Winona, and Charles W. Lilley, of Edmonton; seven grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. The remains are resting at the J. H. Robinson and Company Limited Funeral Home until Sunday morning when they will be conveyed to her late residence for service on Monday at 2 p.m. Interment will be in Fifty Cemetery, Winona.

BASLEY — At her home, Winona, Ontario, on Friday, February 20, 1948, Sarah Ann Horton, widow of John Henry Basley, aged 83 years. Resting at the Funeral Home of J. H. Robinson and Co. Ltd. until Sunday morning and will then be conveyed to the residence for service on Monday, at 2 p.m. Interment in Fifty Cemetery, Winona.

March 9, 1948
NEW ORGAN—Bertram Webster, organist at St. Andrew's Anglican Church, Grimsby, is shown above seated at the console of the new organ recently installed in the church.