

LEAVES FOR NORTH BAY—Ernest F. Barratt, road superintendent and Wentworth County engineer for the past eight years, was given a testimonial luncheon at the Royal Connaught Hotel yesterday by members of the County Council and the Hamilton-Wentworth Suburban Roads Commission. In appreciation of his work, Mr. Barratt was presented with a wrist watch. He leaves the county to be city engineer of North Bay. In the photo are shown, left to right, Stanley Hill, representing the Hamilton-Wentworth Suburban Roads Commission; George W. Jones, reeve of Beverly and chairman of the county roads and bridges committee; Mr. Barratt, and Warden Lewis French, who presided over the luncheon.

APPOINTED — According to a Canadian Press despatch from North Bay, Ernest F. Barratt has been appointed city engineer of that city. Mr. Barratt has been engineer for Wentworth County and the Hamilton-Wentworth Suburban Roads Commission since 1939.

CHURCH MORTGAGE BURNED—A historic occasion for the congregation of Fifty United Church, Winona, was observed following a congregational dinner on Monday evening when the church mortgage was burned and the property was declared debt free. Representing various organizations of the church, those who took part in the ceremony are shown in this photograph. From the left, they are: John P. Bridgeman, board of stewards; Miss Dorothy Bridgeman, Sunday School; J. B. Van Duzer, trustee board; John Budge, session; Mrs. W. C. Dawe, oldest member of the congregation; Rev. G. E. Morrow, present minister of the church; G. O. Smith, choir; Mrs. F. G. Reinke, Women's Association; H. A. Cocks, board of stewards.

Howard Donald Gulp

In his 36th year, Howard Donald Culp, of Grimsby, died suddenly last night at the Hamilton General Hospital where he had been a patient since Monday. A son of Mrs. and the late E. H. Culp, he was born at Grimsby and spent his life there. He was a member of Union Lodge No. 7 A.F. & A.M., and an adherent of St. Andrew's Anglican Church. Surviving are his wife and daughter, Sonia; also his mother, Ms. Myrtle Culp, and a sister, Mrs. Kenneth Irwin, Niagara Falls, Ont. Remains are resting at the Stonehouse funeral home where service will be held on Saturday afternoon. Interment will be made in Queen's Lawn Cemetery.
