WEDDINGS

Oct. 1, 1945.

Matchett—Peel

Ven. Archdeacon G. F. Scovil officiated at the wedding on Saturday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, in St. John's Anglican Church, Winona, when Wilma Georgina Roberta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Robert Peel, Winona, became the bride of Mr. Harold Beam Matchett, Grimsby, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Matchett, Toronto.

Variegated shades of gladioli decked the church for the occasion with white flowers on the altar, and the guest pews were marked with miniature white chrysanthemums and ribbon bows. Presiding at the organ was Mr. Harold Johnson, while Mrs. T. E. McCollum sang I Love You Truly.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a graceful ivory satin gown, trimmed with lace and fashioned in princess style with a sweetheart neckline. Her veil, falling to the hem of her dress, was held in place by a Juliet cap adorned with white flowers. She carried a cascade bouquet of white and Sweetheart roses and wore a diamond-set gold watch, the gift of the groom. There were two attendants, Mrs. Ray Wolloston and Miss Winnifred Ferguson. The matron of honour wore aqua blue chiffon with matching hat and silver sandals; while the bridesmaid was in deep yellow chiffon, with mauve velvet hat and accessories. Both has bouquets of Joanna Hill roses and bronze shade chrysanthemums. Little Miss Wilma English, a namesake of the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William English, Stoney Creek, was flower girl, dressed in a long pink frock, with an old-fashioned nosegay of pink roses and violets. The best man was Mr. Lloyd L. Matchett, of Toronto, while those who ushered the guests to their places were Mr. Bruce Brown and Mr. Hewett Littlejohn, Toronto; Mr. Ray Wolloston, Stoney Creek, and Mr. Kenneth Peel, of Toronto.

A reception for about 100 guests was held at Battlefield House, Stoney Creek. A brown chiffon velvet frock, with matching hat and gold and brown accessories, and a corsage of Talisman roses, was worn by the bride's mother, who received. Assisting her was Mrs. Lloyd L. Matchett, sister-in-law of the groom, who was attired in navy blue chiffon with a corsage of white roses.

The bride and groom left afterward for a wedding trip to Quebec and points east, the bride traveling in an American Beauty shade gabardine suit, with matching feather hat and black accessories. Her flowers were cream roses. The couple will reside at 8 Robinson street, Grimsby.
