

HOME ECONOMISTS AT CONVENTION

Attending the 47th annual Trent Valley convention area Women's Institute at Northminster United Church recently were Kate Anne

Wahl, Hastings County, Jacquelyne Hart, Prince Edward County, Francis Lampman, Toronto, director of clothing, Christine Hoffman, Peterborough, Karen Fitzsimmons, Durham and Northumberland, Margaret Woolf, regional supervisor. — Photo by Luella Bronson

WI Convention Draws Crowd To Peterborough

STIRLING — Mrs. Gordon Macklin, Cobourg, president of the Trent Valley Women's Institute, opened the 47th annual convention at Northminster United Church, Peterborough, recently.

The theme selected for the convention was Pathway to progress.

Mrs. C. H. Dallison, Brighton was song leader. She was accompanied by Mrs. Bryce Hazelwood, RR 2, Codrington, as pianist.

District presidents gave their reports: Mrs. Fred Wellman, RR 2 Stirling, for Hastings East; Mrs. Glen Barker, McArthurs Mills for Hastings North; Mrs. H. Ketcheson, Frankford for Hastings West; Mrs. E. Thompson, Colborne for Northumberland East; Mrs. J.C. Brisbin, Baltimore for Northumberland West, Mrs. M. Cornish, Peterborough and Mrs. George Vinent, Bloomfield for Prince Edward.

There was $784 in contributions to Save the Sight from the seven districts.

Reports from standing committees were given with several new ideas in motto and roll call recommended for the next year program.

A dinner was served in Wright Memorial Hall Mrs. S. Bird, past president introduced the head table guests. Federation representatives sat together at another table. Mrs. Francis Lampman, home economist showed slides and told of the 4H homemaking clubs, and the courses offered the girls.

During the afternoon sessions, Mrs. Clifford Reid, Belleville, first vice president, led.

Mrs. H. Noblitt, Ottawa, president FWIO gave full coverage of Women's Institute work from three levels: branch, district and area. At the Wednesday morning session, Mrs. Douglas Reid, second vice president, RR 5 Belleville, was in charge.

Gleanings from district annuals were heard with Mrs. S.

Bird, and Mrs. C. Barber giving their reports as provincial board directors. Mrs. Ralph Sills, RR 2 Roslin, area curator gave a report.

Among reports given was education and cultural activities by Mrs. Alex Bell, Wooler.

Mrs. Francis Tobin, third vice president, RR 1 Madoc took charge of the Wednesday afternoon session.

During the afternoon, the home economists of the area gave their reports beginning with Mrs. Karen Fitzsimmons, Northumberland, Miss Christine Hoffman, Peterborough, Mrs. Jacquelyne Hart, Prince Edward and Mrs. K.A. Wahl, Hastings.

Hastings East Institute presented three skits under the title of These Women.

It was agreed to accept the invitation from Cobourg to hold the 1974 Trent Valley Institute there.

Mr. And Mrs. Rod Edward Follwell

A recent Spring wedding of local interest took place at Holy Trinity Church, Shannonville, Saturday, May 17, when Kate Ann Wahl, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. George Wahl and Rod Edward Follwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Follwell, all of R. R. 1 Corbyville were united in marriage. Attending the couple was Mrs. Donald Scott, matron of honor and John Judson, London as the best man. Following reception held in the Four Seasons Hotel, Belleville, the couple took up residence at R. R. 2 Shannonville - Webb Photo Service.