

Centennial photo

Approximately 700 students, from all three schools in Tweed, joined together for an awesome occasion, the TWEED 100 Centennial

Photograph. This spectacular event took place on Oct. 16 in Ray Murphy's field, across from the water tower at approximately

2:00 p.m. This event was directed under the exceptional organizational skills of Ed McAuley. Photo courtesy of Heron Photo Craft