

This beautiful, ornate clock was donated to the Tweed and Area Historical Society by Marjory Deline recently. The clock is presently being displayed in the Tweed News window, awaiting a place in it's new home in Tweed's municipal building, along with numerous other articles that have been, and are continuing to be collected by Tweed's Historical Society.