

Arrangements for inside the hall.

Table for cafeteria lunch.

Table for antiques - arranged in groups - home - school - church

Ladies selling plates $2.00 - hangers extra

Men selling history books - $1.00

Machinery and tools - some of the machinery to be used in parade.

Evening - old time dance in school

There may be some who have no friends with whom to remain overnight. If they have made no arrangements themselves will you leave your name with Mrs. Percy Ray as to how many you could accommodate.

Any proceeds left from the centennial after expenses to be used as a gift for the church to mark our 100th anniversary.

Sunday:

Park cars - committee in charge.

Welcoming Committee - elders

Guest Book

Borrow extra offering plates - extra men to receive offering

Seating arrangements:-

Any greeting to be read - by whom?

Greetings from visiting clergy?

Solo or duet by former members.

Organ used in service.

Lunch - same arrangements as Saturday

Visiting

Someone to go to C.J.B.Q. to request we be given publicity

Ask the "Intelligencer" to have a reporter in attendance.

---

The last few days were busy indeed as last minute preparations were completed.

The newspaper office was notified in writing so they would have no "slip-up" in date. The radio station was to give us publicity. The station was very co-operative and besides telling of the coming event several times, they called and asked for a "live" interview with the convener and