

ZION HILL 1928

Zion Hill, March 15—Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Kennedy and family were entertained at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Denyes, ex-M.P., on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Allan Simpston has returned to his cousin's Mr. Elliot's of the north, after spending a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Reid and daughter Nellie.

Mr. Eugene Lawrence, formerly of Mexico City is holidaying with Mr. Robt. Reid and family.

Mr. James Reid and son Gordon of Corbyville spent Tuesday under the parental roof.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Reid entertained their friends to a bountiful repast on Friday evening. Among the assembly were noticed: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. and Misses Vera and Audry Sheffield, Miss Marjorie Ketcheson, Miss Nellie Reid and Mr. Eugene Lawrence, formerly of Mexico. The menu was as follows: Potato souffle, Leg of Pork with jello, French Cabbage Salad, Old Colonial Tea Biscuits, Gherkins, Lombardy Plums, Lady Baltimore Cake, Berry Tarts garnished with whipped cream. Mrs. Reid poured tea. The ladies adjourned to the sitting-room while the men smoked. Miss Nellie Reid very capably passed Mexican Sea Foam candy. The evening was spent in cards, music and conversation.

A delightful evening was spent at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Hawley on Tuesday last. Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walt and Vera of Foxboro, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thrasher and Olive, formerly of the Queen city, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Casey and Miss Marjorie Ketcheson, formerly of Foxboro. After the bountiful dinner the guests spent a pleasant evening.

Several from this vicinity attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Rose of Holloway on Thursday last.

The postponed C.G.I.T. meeting was held on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cranston. A goodly number were in attendance. The meeting adjourned at a moderate hour.

Much sympathy is extended to the parents and relatives of the late Mr. Roy Wilson and infant son, in their sad bereavement.

Mr. Clifford Ray and friend attended the drama held in Zion Hill United Church on Thursday evening. The drama was a decided success. It was an object lesson for farmers and prospective agriculturalists, showing the advantage of scientific methods over the old-fashioned ways. For instance, by using rings on the legs of your geese you will know what you have next year.

Mr. Richard Cranston was confined to his home on Sunday evening last.

Mr. Floyd Sheffield had a slight misfortune last week while working in the woods with Mr. Lorne Brough. He slipped on a piece of ice and fell on his axe.

Mr. Bruce Mitchell called on Mr. Wm. Tufts of Braeside on Wednesday evening last.

Miss Nellie Reid and Miss Marjorie Ketcheson spent the tea hour with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tufts, jr., on Wednesday. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Mr. Owen McEvoy had the misfortune to break his axle on Zion's Hill on Friday.

Miss Vera Sheffield spent the week end under the parental roof.

Mr. and Mrs. Denyes and son Kenneth entertained company on Friday evening.

The air is still full of weather and at the time of writing the prospects look very poor for the usual Sunday traffic. It is feared that old dobbin will have to be hitched to the cutter.

PHILLIPSTON

PHILLIPSTON — The road men are busy gravelling this road.

Mr. Will Carter lost a horse with quinsy last week.

Several are suffering from very bad colds on this line.

The W.M.S. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Earl Sayers on Wednesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hodgen and Miss Mabel visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. R. Robson on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thrasher and Miss I. Hannah and Mr. Lee Ketcheson spent Monday evening at the home of Mr. Earl Sayers.

Several from here attended the play "Back to the Farm" at Zion last week and all report it was splendid.

Miss Hazel Fleming sprained her ankle on Wednesday and will be out of school for a few days.

Master Willett Casey has been quite ill with a cold. Dr. Ward is attending him.