

Dunkin' Good Time In Hillier

Taylor Park in Hillier was packed with people, celebrating a Hillier Day In The Park. Opening the events was Mayor James Taylor. The Mayor welcomed everyone and invited them to enjoy the day. The day had everything from horse shoe toss to baby races. The most popular event was the dunk tank. Many locals took the dive including people such as Hillier Fire Chief - Ken Haight, OPP Officer Liana Braga, Adam Peterson from Mel's Septic Tank Pumping, C.M.L. Snider Principal Vic Alyea, Councilor - Peggy Burris, John Westerhof from Kente Enterprises and many others. Pictured here Chris Hiles of Lakeview Esso in Wellington holds his breath just before being dunked. The day also included horse drawn wagon rides, game booths, a raffle, food booths, water ball by the Hillier Fire Department and much more. The event was sponsored by the Hillier Recreation Committee.
