At a trustee's meeting in June, 1926, the secretary-treasurer was authorized to get the deed to the land for the Church copied and registered. Thus a letter from a law firm in Belleville, dated March 13, 1928 states "that the Memorial is registered in Book "Q" for the Township of Ameliasburg.

Trustees for 1926 were Harry Peck, chairman: Earl Weese, secretary-treasurer: John Onderdonk, Earl Bonter, Roy Williamson, Frederick Dempsey and Frank Dempsey. Other persons appointed over the years included Joseph Allison in 1928. An entry in the minute book of the time says "that the change of residence of Fred Dempsey automatically disqualifies him for the office of Trustee and in his place Joseph Allison be appointed."

In 1946 Harold Bonter was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father, Earl Bonter. In that year also, a concrete abutment was poured to prevent the settling of the east wall of the Church. The east tower was repaired and the roof re-shingled. Other trustees appointed include: Earl Onderdonk and Hugh John Weese, 1950, Allan Weese 1956, Bert Simpson 1959, Beuford Peck and Arnold Weatherall 1960 and this year the trustees are Harold Bonter, Earl Onderdonk, Hugh Weese, Allan Weese, Bert Simpson, Beuford Peck and Arnold Weatherall.

The Albury Ladies Aid assists the trustees with the upkeep of the Church, whose present minister is Rev. George Ambury.

Services are held every Sunday morning at 11.15 a.m. A special united service bringing together parishioners from Mr. Ambury's three other charges, Rednersville, Centre, and Victoria, will be held in Albury Church on Christmas Eve.
