Three-year-old Lori Anne Dulmage was one of the first children to enjoy $500 worth of new toys donated to the Prince Edward County Day Care by the Prince Edward District Womens' Institute Tuesday. Institute first vice-president Marlene Corfield said the funds were raised through last year's annual craft show at the Picton Community Centre. Day care director Pam Murphy said the donation will help expand the centre's mobile toy lending library. From left: Mary Ellen Closson, institute secretary-treasurer, Corfield, Thelma Coulter, past-president and Murphy. The day care's mobile toy library travels to different pre-schools, libraries and day care centres in the county.
