

Tweedsmuir History – Volume 5 - Rednersville Women's Institute – Index

- Page 1 Introductory pages and index
- Page 5 Branch History - Officers
- Page 9 Autobiographies of members – Marjorie Bedford, Margaret Bourgoïn,
Edith Cairns, Margaret Vandervelde, Marion Calnan, Marlene Corfield,
Linda Dulmage, Vivian Green, Nellie Montgomery, Evelyn Peck,
Elizabeth Redner, Claudette ter Brugge, Marion Townsend,
Daisy Wannamaker, Florence Waterhouse, Fay Wetherall, Ann Weese
Frances Young
- Page 39 Meeting summaries and pictures
- Page 65 Quinte Exhibition displays
- Page 69 Other activities - Pie booth, Art & Craft sale, District Annual
- Page 73 Centennial awards
- Page 75 Farming – Top rated show – Wizard of Willowlee
Maple Tree farming
Canadian agriculture prepares for new millennium
Goreland Farms – dairy
Appledoorn Farms
- Page 91 Community Residents – Harmon Montgomery
Earl Onderdonk, Roger Redner, John Smith, Audrey Carter
Carol Dawson, Al Purdy, Brenda Chambers, Erik Slone
Sharon Vanclief, Lyle Vanclief, Brian Price
- Page 115 Community Services – Ameliasburgh Fair, Seventh Town Historical Society
Phonebusters, Community on Phone Patrol, Trash Bash,
Rednersville Band, 4-H Dairy club, Albury Ladies Aid, Albury Church Choir
Ameliasburgh Volunteer Fire Department
- Page 161 Community Facilities – township map and street index, Quinte Inn Dance Hall
Rednersville Church, St. Alban's, Albury Church, Albury Cemetery
Al Purdy Library, Fort Kente, Ameliasburgh Museum,
Quinte Educational Museum, Marilyn Adams Genealogical Centre,
Traffic Lights , Water Treatment Plant
- Page 195 Industry, Trade and Commerce – Blue Jane Lane, Quinte-Eco Consultants
Dovetail Woodcrafts, Rancor Wood Recycling, Exterior Furnaces
- Page 204 Miscellaneous – Conference '98