

Photo by Phyllis Lowe

Mary Lou Norton, District President, presents the 1986 Prince Edward District Women's Scholarship to Miss Linda Norton.

Phyllis Lowe makes a presentation to Susan Leavitt, winner of the Prince Edward District Women's Institute Bursary. Leavitt studied Retail Sales and Management at Sir Sanford College.

David Cox, Gazette staff

Gets 4-H award

Miss Anne Foster of RR 9, Picton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Foster, was a recipient of the Prince Edward Women's Institute scholarship recently at the 4-H Achievement Day held on December 8 at Prince Edward Collegiate Institute. She is a member of the Greenbush Club and is presently taking Nursing Science at Queen's University. The scholarship is presented for outstanding work in 4-H.

Susan Alyea Winner W.I. Scholarship

Susan Alyea of Hillier won the Prince Edward District Women's Institutes Scholarship for 1967.

Susan Alyea is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Alyea of Hillier. She has her Provincial Honours and has completed 14 projects in 4-H Homemaking Clubs. She has been an enthusiastic worker in Girl's Club work, and is a member of the H. and A. Junior Institute.

Last year she was chosen to go to Manitoba for two weeks on a 4-H Interprovincial Exchange.

While attending Prince Edward Collegiate Institute she received the coveted "Salt of the Earth" award.

Susan is also a talented musician. At present she is attending Teacher's College in Peterborough.

All her friends wish for Susan continued success, both at Teacher's College and also in her future career. Congratulations, Susan.