

ROSE BROAD

This building was the original S.S.#3 Sophiasburgh School, built in 1879. Circa 1965, it was sold to Mrs. Emily Moore who had it converted to a home. This work was done by Mr. William Orsborne, Emily's brother-in-law. The present owner is Mrs. Rose Broad, William Orsborne's daughter. Rose took possession in 1975.

MAY ORSBORNE

This house, located at R.R.8, Picton, was first owned by a Mr. Patterson, who sold it to Mr. Graydon Brummell. Mr. William Orsborne purchased this home in 1923; here Billand his wife Louisa raised four children. For quite some years this house accommodated two families. After Louisa's death in 1982, the home was purchased by their son, - Trayton (Pete) Orsborne and his wife May. Here they raised their four children and still reside here. Additional remodelling has once again converted the house to a one-family dwelling.
