

LEGION MEMBERS PARADE.....Part of the activities for Legion Week was a Memorial Sunday parade. The day started out with a pancake breakfast at the Legion parking lot. Members later joined in a parade to the 11 a.m. church service at the United Church, Picton. Rev. Edward Horton conducted the service with extra help from legion members. After the service a wreath was laid at the Cenotaph and poppies were placed on soldier's graves at Glenwood Cemetery.

A fellow has to be nuts (pardon the expression) to chance grabbing a bite to eat from this birdbox in full view of a cat. The dozing puss, however, appeared unconcerned and Cyril squirrel gorged his fill without mishap. The photo was taken By Picton Optometrist E.A. Grubin from the living room of his Paul St. home.
