

LIKE A BIRD - Wanda Miller, a student at C.M.L. Snider Public School, Wellington, flew through the air with the ease of a bird as she tested her skills in the high jump at the track and field meet last week. Nearly every student in the school took part in events ranging from sack races to long jump.