

25-YEAR JEWELS...At a special ceremony held last Wednesday evening 10 members of the Bay of Quinte Lodge, No. 143, Independent Order of Odd Fellows were presented with 25-year membership Jewels. The presentation of jewels included front row, left to right: Phil Dodds of Cherry Valley, Harold Cressy of Glenora Road, Benton Goodwin of Milford and Alfred King of Picton. Back row, left to right: Malcolm Trumble of Picton, Frank Snider, Kingston, formerly of Picton; Harry Hicks of Picton and Lewis J. Claxton of RR 1, Bloomfield. Absent were Jack Minaker of Picton and Robert Boyce of Wellington.

LONG SERVICE — Thursday last week service awards and testimonial scrolls from the Prime Minister were presented to two Prince Edward County Post Office employees who have completed 25 years service. Walter W. Drechsler, left, has been employed as a postal clerk at the Picton post office for 26 years. Ralph E. Preston, centre, has been postmaster at Wellington since 1959 and has 27 years total service with the post office. Presenting the awards is Robert J. Carter, supervisory postmaster of Picton Post Office.