

Many residents of the H.J. McFarland Memorial Home for the Aged have been given the opportunity to take advantage of 1979 being the Year of the Child. Every Wednesday morning a pre-school play group visits the home along with the mothers of the children and everyone joins in on singing, playing games and exercises.

Year of the child enjoyed by seniors

Shoppers at Hiway Food Market will soon find themselves in a larger more convenient store. Owner Fred Lowenberger has a 25 by 70 foot addition under construction which will permit a revamping of the store to include a complete meat market.