

"Don't you trip me, Petey!" Furry friend "Petey" belongs to a neighbor, but sticks close to Harry whenever he's out. He has found Harry a "soft touch" when he barks at the door.

After a few swings around the pond, Harry changes back to boots. Part of the footbridge and the miniature Peace Pagoda can be seen in the background.

Harry has turned out several of these attractive wooden plant holders in his "hobby house." Other well made items include mug cabinets and fireplace log holders.
