

A modern day raccoon shown above who has lost its bite is as cute and cuddly as an old-fashioned Cupid without the arrows (right). Frills and affection aren't much different today on February 14, as the modern card shows, than in the old time Valentine from Hallmark's Historic Collection.