

Genevieve Newcombe and some of the children of the Little Learners Nursery School investigated the possible uses for the wooden blocks she donated to the children as her personal project as Worthy Matron of the Lakeside Chapter, Order Of The Eastern Star.

June McDermaid discusses some of the paintings in the East Central Ontario Art Association 18th Annual Exhibition with Warden and Mrs. Jack Sprague

Monday night at the opening of the exhibition. The collection will be on display at the Prince Edward County Museum during the month of November.