

DO YOU KNOW ?

- the first Women's Institute in the World was organized at Stoney Creek, Ont., on Feb. 19, 1897?
- the co-founders were Mrs. Adelaide Hoodless and Mr. Erland Lee?
- the Lee Home, where the first Constitution was penned, is owned and maintained by the Members of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario?
- the Women's Institute is an educational organization, non-sectarian, non-partisan and non-racial?
- the Women's Institute is open to any girl or woman 16 years of age and over?
- upon payment of Membership fee you are also a Member Provincially (The Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario), Nationally (The Federated Women's Institutes of Canada) and Internationally (The Associated Country Women of the World)?
- each Member receives a Handbook and a copy of "Home and Country", our Ontario publication, at each printing?

? — ? — ? — ? — ?

? — ? — ? — ? — ?

? — ? — ? — ? — ?