

Section 2 – Farming

- Page 1 – Chef Roberto – Italy’s loss is the County’s gain
- Say cheese! The 3rd annual Great Canadian Cheese Festival.
- Page 2 – Pinot and wookie balls – Terroir welcomes wine and food lovers to the place that is the County.
- Page 3 – Celebrating County wine.
- Jumping in – Innovative entrepreneurs go where the action is.
- Page 4 – Slow wine on County roads.
- Page 5 – A master speaks – County wine writing the first chapter in an important new book, according to John Szabo.
- Page 6 – Broken Stone owners grow family in the city and dream in the County.
- Terroir at Crystal Palace.
- Page 7 – Are vineyards good for birds, bats and human health?
- Redtail owners operate winery off-grid using solar and geothermal energy.
- Page 8 – Growing honours – Sandbanks Estate Winery wins 2012 - V.Q.A. of Excellence Award.
- Page 8-9 – Between two worlds – Mis amigos.
- Page 10 – Lavender festival looks for growth in year two.
- Fragrant fest – Two thousand visitors take in second annual Lavender Festival.
- Page 11 – Lavender festival brings 1,500 people to farm.
- Lavender fields festival.
- Page 12-13 – Hubbs Creek starts using its grapes to make its own name in industry.
- Adventures in agriculture.
- Page 14 – And the harvest begins anew.
- Page 15 – Bigger, brighter, boozier – New LCBO outlet gives strong presence to local producer.
- Page 16-17 – Nurturing young minds – New world studies from the Loire Valley to the County.
- Harvest – by hand or machine?
- Page 18 – Red, White and Blues – Innovative Canadian Wine & Music festival.
- Page 19 – Open market – What the EU trade means for local winemakers.
- Uncork a good time - staycation.
- Page 20 – Wine time – you can’t be wrong.
- Time to celebrate the harvest.
- Page 21 – Think outside the bottle.
- Page 22 – Wassail weekend.
- PECWA elects new executive.
- Velo Vineyards co-owner Kathleen Greenway elected as PECWA chair.
- Page 23 – Success – Supporting and Strengthening Youth and Agriculture.
- Page 24 – Vineyard worker ad for Stanners Vineyard
- Ice storm has minimal impact on orchards, vineyards.
- En primeur.
- Page 25-26 – A drop in the bucket – Maple in the County a family matter.
- Page 27 – Weather proves challenging for producers – Late running sap could impact upcoming festival.
- Maple in the County: Annual festival takes place this month - Syrup season kicks off.
- Page 28 – PEC: Growers speculate on yield: Winter harsh for wineries.
- Winery to host endurance event.
- Page 29-30 – Maple offers magic despite late sap run – Maple visitors love the family-first atmosphere.
- Page 31 – DAMAGED VINES: Some growers suffer after long, cold season.
- Page 32-34 – The dance of the HIP HOPS.