

Section 4 – Farming

- Page 1 – Wine industry rep says Ontario’s distribution system a barrier to growth.
- Back to basics – Traditional food is David McFaul’s retirement plan.
- Page 2 – Pizza and wine a winning combo.
- Cash prize available to farmers who commit to agricultural waste recycling programs.
- Page 3 – Earthy goodness.
- Page 4 – Opimian Society enjoys fifth annual county winery tour.
- Page 5 – Cheers to Terroir!
- Page 6 – Cheers to The County.
- Page 7 – Wineries have first chance to make direct sales to consumers at Terroir.
- Redtail owners operate winery off-grid using solar and geothermal energy.
- Page 8 – It’s PICNIC season.
- Page 9 – Leading street purveyors bring trucks, treats to Hillier.
- Organizer envisions inviting trucks from other cities for second event in 2015.
- Page 10 – On a riverboat fantasy.
- Page 11 – Lavender Festival – July 5 & 6 2014.
- Page 12 – Lavender’s blue.
- Page 13 – Lavender enthusiasts fete fragrant crop found on Hillier Farm.
- Thank You from Prince Edward County Lavender owners to all that participated.
- Page 14 – Trail Estate owners share culinary business experience and love for Ontario wines.
- Page 15 – Next gen Baitley 5.0 – Four generations Baitley’s celebrate 100 years of farming on Danforth Road.
- Page 16 – Jumping on the food wagon.
- Page 17 – Pizza and wine on an area patio is a perfect match made in heaven.
- Page 18 – The Grange’s mother-daughter wine making team a force to be reckoned with.
- Page 19 – Hillier’s Hinterland Wine Company Wine Company a sparkling gem with products that must be tried.
- Hinterland offers a good glass of bubbly, which pairs well with oysters.
- Page 20-21 – Bitter green County hops.
- Page 22 – Producing wine is a family affair for Traynors at their new Danforth Road vineyard.
- Page 23 – Finest fleece – Livestock farming without the moral dilemma.
- Page 24 – Wine lovers from Kingston’s Army, Navy and Air Force Club tour local wineries.
- Still on the vine, celebrating before the pick.
- Page 25 – Traynor Family Vineyard – newest addition to the county wineries.
- Harvest brings the community together.
- Page 26 – Clam Bake at Hinterland.
- Page 27 – Wassailing into winter.
- Page 28 – Wassailing November 22nd & 23rd, 29th & 30th, Dec 6th & 7th.
- It all amount to a hill of grapes.
- Page 29 – Winegrowers getting ready to Wassail.
- Page 30 – Wineries celebrate season’s end with Wassail.
- Page 31 – Province recognizes local food innovators – Harwood Estate Winery and PEC Lavender are among the winners.
- Page 32 – Wassail – Here they come a Wassailing at Lacey’s Estate, Harwood Estate and Three Dog Winery.
- Page 33 – Wassail brings end to sipping season for many.
- Many go Wassailing at local wineries.
- Page 34 – Which wine goes best with fiddleheads?
- Page 35 – Sparkling apple goodness in a glass.
- Page 36 – The quest for perfect Pinot.
- Page 37-41 – Kempt Stewart – Veteran, Vintner, Visionary.
- Page 42-43 – The prince of somewhere.
- Page 44 – Valentine’s Day a sweet time at local wineries.
- Page 45 – A fool and his horse – New funding technique for traditional farming equipment.
- Page 46 – Solar Panel Storage Building goes up on Mr. Bakker’s Farm.