

Section 5 – Community Residents

- Page 1 – Fresh start – a unique French dining experience emerges in Consecon.
- Page 2 – Ignored - Head Trenton Memorial Emergency department quits.
- Page 3 – War dead remembered in Hillier.
- Page 4 – Conrad Beaubien is hosting a gathering to celebrate his 100 year old dad Paul’s life.
– Elwood Burris turns 80 year old.
- Page 5 – Private Campbell writes from the front.
- Page 6 – Marguerite Greer turns 80 years old.
– Jim and Jean Waterfall celebrating 50 wonderful years.
– Hillier Hall program for September 18th, 2014.
- Page 7 – Hillier man arrested, charged following luring investigation.
– Burris honoured by Belleville Bulls.
- Page 8 – In remembrance.
- Page 9 – Some 20 wreaths, 30 candles at Consecon cenotaph.
- Page 10-11 – A chef for all seasons.
- Page 12 – Where’s Jamie?
- Page 13 – Recipes for success – The Jamie Kennedy Cookbook.
- Page 14-15 – Aiming high – Richard Karlo leaves a legacy of craft, preserved heritage and passion.
- Page 16-17 – Hillier winemaker Richard Karlo remembered as award-winning innovator, friend to Many & Karlo believed community-first approach was good for business.
– Celebrating the life of Richard Karlo.
- Page 18 – Terpstra to celebrate at Canadian Championships.
- Page 19 – Mysterious ways. Former Hillier resident has role in TV program “Murdoch Mysteries”.
- Page 20 --- Obituaries
– Rosemary Goodmurphy (1928-2014).
– Terry Blake Wannamaker (1944-2014).
– Richard Karlo (?–2014) – please refer to page 14.
– Lois Conley (?–2015).
– Pearl Roberts (1927-2015).

Section 6 – Community Facilities

- Page 1 – Chronicles of Wellington – Collection handed over to County Archives.
- Page 2 – Plaster from the past.
- Page 3 – Hidden cost – Ceiling repair expands to a new roof at Hillier Hall.
- Page 4 – Raising the roof – Can Hillier hall ceiling be something for everyone?

Section 7 – Community Services

- Page 1 – Council preparing for fall election.
– Quinte Access poised to keep transit contact – County looks to extend deal for two years.
- Page 2-3 – Unnatural – council blocks winery’s plan to expand commercial operations.
– Letters – save real family farms.
- Page 4 – County calls for broad band on neonicotinoids.
– Residents abuzz over bees.
- Page 5 – Council ignores the important questions.
- Page 6 – Decision to defer zoning doesn’t make sense.
– Agriculture rep supports council’s decision on Hillier Creek.
- Page 7-8 – Road to recovery – council approves $1.2 million for road surface treating in 2014.
- Page 9 – Grapes of Wrath: Given the go-ahead after roadblock.
- Page 10 – Election race gaining horses.
- Page 11 – County Rd.8 to receive $1.6 million makeover - Councillors say need, not politics motive.
– County to move forward with plans for fire station in Picton industrial park.
- Page 12 – Shovels turned for new firehall in Consecon.
– Fire hall “a long time coming”
- Page 13 – Smith brings his preferred Progressive Conservative leadership candidate to Hillier.
- Page 14 – Notice of Public meeting.