

Section 7 – Community Services (continued)

- Page 4 – New fire hall in Consecon
– County officially opens its new $1.7 million fire hall in Consecon.
- Page 5 – Zombieland – Size of council is dead for another term, but few are prepared to bury it.
– Public will have chance to weigh in on council size in September.
- Page 6 – Final chapter – TaskForce the low bidder to build new fire and paramedic station in Picton.
- Page 7 – Higher is better – County agrees to spend $1 million on ladder for fire truck.
- Page 8 – Council reaches stalemate on restructuring plans.
- Page 9 – PEC council will change size, representation.
- Page 10 – Quaiff stresses value of co-operation with neighbours.
- Page 11-12 – Lead or follow? – Does the County’s official plan promote or hinder the County?
- Page 13 – Committee of adjustment Public meeting: Planning Public council.
- Page 14 – Council makes a decision.
– County council approves adjusted nine-ward system.
- Page 15 – Zika travel alert for women.
- Page 16 – Unpleasant Bay – Trailer park’s expansion application uncovers tensions.
- Page 17 – Case study – Comparable development and connection charges.
- Page 18 – Appealed – OMB to review council size decision.
- Page 19 – Council approves 23 new fully-serviced trailer sites at Bay Meadows Park.

Section 8 – Industry, Trade & Commerce

- Page 1 – Wine guide – Ag minister kicks off the Ontario Wine Week in the County.
- Page 2 – Leal opens wine week in Hillier.
- Page 3 – Golden mile – Closson Road businesses working together.
- Page 4 – Destination road – Closson Road entrepreneurs count on the sum being greater than the parts.
- Page 5 – Closson Road officially launches its web site.
- Page 6 – OMAFRA recognizes innovators.
- Page 7 – Hache brings stories of county wine industry to Food Channel’s web site.
- Page 8 – Heal With Horses staged over 200 therapy sessions in 2015.
- Page 9 – Perfecting the craft – New craft brewery opens in the County.
- Page 10 – First tapping hints at sweet treats to come.
– Keelan-Bishop adds to county poster series.

Section 9 – Life Style

- Page 1 – Eating the weeds.
- Page 2 – Grapes of Wrath to return to Hillier Creek.
– No sour grapes at event.
- Page 3 – Terroir Run delivering fun experiences, economic impact in its fifth year.
- Page 4 – Runners savour flavor of Hillier’s Terroir Run.
- Page 5 – What’s on – announces Memorial at Christ Church Hillier Cemetery.
– Hillier Fish Fry – Saturday, July 11th.
- Page 6 – Weightless – City circus contributes to county community.
- Page 7 – Festival paints the County purple.
- Page 8 – Lavender festival draws 2,600 visitors.
- Page 9 – Benchmark – Bench dedicated to mother of late Karlo Estates winery.
- Page 10 – Forecast for fun
- Page 11 – Without a trout – Despite a few logistical setbacks, Hillier fish fry wows guests with County style.
- Page 12 – Heart and sole – Fish fry swells Hillier spirit.
- Page 13 – Prince Edward County Lavender farm thanks.
– Hillier Circus Festival – Saturday, August 15.
- Page 14 – Grapes of Wrath - August 29th, 2015.
– Wedding party – Rosehall Run host a stag and Doe event.
- Page 15 – I can fly – With the greatest ease, that daring young girl on the twirling hoops.
- Page 16 – Sprightly Kids – The circus is coming to town.
- Page 17 – It’s her day – Wedding day tensions serve as rich fodder for Festival Players’ romp.
- Page 18 – Grapes of Wrath set to go with round two.
– Shed Chetwyn Farms Birth of baby boy (alpaca).
- Page 19 – Circus camp allows children to soar.
– Participants receive change to show off acrobatic skills in front of audience.