

United Empire Loyalist Outing, continued... Old Hay Bay Church and Cemetery

The oldest Methodist Church in Canada, erected in 1792, now a designated National Historic Site.

Members entering Old Hay Bay Church

Two Historic Plaques briefly noting the history of the Old Hay Bay Church.

L-R: Mabel Wright, Doris Wright, Marilyn Rennie, Jean Alexander, Carolyn Cumpsty and Catherine Sutherland sitting.

Darlene Johnston, in upper level of Hay Bay Church, points out the gallery effect with use of a downward floor slope.

Back L-R: Jean Alexander, Carole Harrison, Rebecca MacKellar.
Front L- R: Mabel Wright, Win Hadath,
Standing: Marilyn Rennie & Deborah Forsyth.

Display at the front of the Church.
Depiction of costume of earlier settlers

L-R: Marilyn Rennie, Deborah Forsyth (guide), Rebecca MacKellar, Rosemary Istead, Darlene Johnston, Carolyn Cumpsty.

Deborah Forsyth explaining the marking for the 10 children who drowned on their way to worship on August 29, 1819.

Headstone for Methodist minister, William Losee (1832) & wife Mary (1831).

1819 wooden tombstone for John and Jane German

Memorial Bench for Rev. J. William Lamb.

Memorial headstone for the Huff brothers Paul and Solomon who donated the land on which stands the Old Hay Bay Church.