

Pictured left to right holding the Elm Hurst Inn voucher is Donna McPherson, Irene Drenth with her Hardanger table-runner and Margaret Ross holding her oil painting.

Contributed photo

Oxford County Women's Institute holds raffle to raise funds for pre-conference workshops

Submitted by Oxford County Women's Institute

Oxford County Women's Institute responded to Wellington County WI's challenge to raise $2001 to support pre-conference workshops prior to the ACWW Conference in Hamilton in June. There will be women from Third World countries present who will benefit from the pre-conference workshops.

A raffle was held and three great prizes were awarded: a Hardanger table-runner made and donated by Irene Dunth of Brooksdale WI and won by Susan Hunt of Braemar WI; an oil painting by Margaret Ross of Braemar WI, won by Ruth Merrill, and a Sunday overnight stay and breakfast for two at the Elm Hurst Inn in Ingersoll was won by Frances Rutherford of Brooksdale WI. More than $2001 was raised through the raffle.