

DISCOVERY DAY: Seven members of the Brooksdale, Embro 2 and Kintore 4-H clubs and one future member travelled to the Longwood Road Conservation Area to enjoy a day of 4-H fun with 4-H Discovery Day June 18. Hosted by Region 6 4-H Council, 49 Region 6 members from ages 10 to 12 rotated in groups to various activities. They made personal bandanas, decorated two very large chocolate sheet cakes in the 90th anniversary theme, tried the skills of tie-dying t-shirts, participated in team building activities, judging activities and "4-H Go for the Gold" game complete with the electronic buzzers. There were lots of cheers during the "Farmer Olympics" where members came together to work as a two teams and participated in a variety of relay games Oxford participants were Yvonne Aarts, Paul Knoops, Mark Northmore, Simon Northmore, Jos Pelders, Kayla Schrijver, Janneke Vanden Nieuwelaar and Hailee Verhoeven. Rvent sponsors were Agrium, Farm Credit Canada and Ontario Cattlemen's Association (t-shirts). (Laura Green photo)

Dave attended a 4-H Club luncheon on Parliament Hill with Amanda Green of Embro.