

4-H WELCOME: During his first week in Canada, 13-year-old Riona Nakona from Kogoshima, Japan attended the Oxford County 4-H "Go for the Gold" competition at the Gencor Office, Woodstock. He is LABO exchange student and is staying with Laurence and Mary MacKay and family of Embro. David Grieve, Oxford County 4-H association chairperson, welcomes Riona to the event. In the background are Blair and Davina MacKay, two of host family children, who are participants in the competition. Riona didn't understand the questions etc. but enjoyed being part of the group and eating pizza. (Laura Green photo)
