

PROVINCIAL CHAMPIONS: Embro's novice rep hockey team brought home an Ontario Minor Hockey Association championship title recently by defeating Watford 6-1 in a final playdown game. Here, the team poses for a victory photo after the game including front: goalie Brodie Monteith. Second row left to right: Ian Bartlett, Cameron Leslie, Adam Brooke, Wyatt Lansdell, Mark McMurray, Curtis Baker, Matthew Thurtell. Third row: Jared Prekup, Isaiah Whetstone, John Morgan, Ryan Schryver, Jeremy Beynen and Adam Pelkmans. Back row: assistant coach Dale Brooke, head coach Cliff Bartlett and trainer John Baker. Absent from photo: Nicholas Baker. (Submitted photo)

Embro Novice Reps win OMHA title

Displaying solid blue line play and fantastic goaltending, Embro's novice rep hockey players brought home an Ontario Minor Hockey Association (OMHA) championship title recently.

Embro claimed the provincial title with a 6-1 win over Watford in the final after defeating Norwich in the preliminary round and Beverly in the semi-finals, including two 3-2 overtime victories.

OMHA officials presented the team with the Lobster Cup as well as medallions and OMHA champion hats following the final game.

"It was a steadfast team effort," said head coach Cliff Bartlett.

The team now moves into league playdowns.