

Embros 126th annual fall fair

of the various competitions at the 126th Embro Fall Fair. Sewing and ladies work Ruth Matheson, of RR 3 Embro registered the highest number of points in sewing while Silena Swance, of RR 1 Salford, picked up the most points in ladies' work.

Baking and arts and crafts

Top prize for the highest points in baking went to Rosina Morris, of RR 1 Embro while Cory Van Haaster, of RR 2 Tavistock, was awarded the most points in arts and crafts.

4-H and girl's work

Denise Turvey, of RR 1 Embro, had the highest number of points in 4-H work while Helen McKay, of RR 5 Embro, was the top point getter in girl's work.

Baby show

The best overall baby boy was Craig Gill and Terri Pearson was judged the best overall girl.

Steven Innes and Justin Crown won as best boys aged six months and younger. Sylena Mutsaers and Melissa Strickler were judged best girls in the same age category.

Craig Gill and Andrew Mutsaers won best boys, 7-12 months. Nancy Vander Horn and Terri Pearson won best girls, 7-12 months.

Michael and Jonathon Graham won the boy's category, 13-18 months. Melanie Weishar and Justine Belore were judged best girls, 13-18 months.

Floats

The best commercial float in Monday's parade was entered by Zinn Transport, of RR 7 Woodstock while the Embro Optimist Club had the best non-commercial float.

Wendy Dawson, of Embro, was named best clown in the parade while the honor of best dressed pony and rider was won by Janice Hisey, also of Embro.

Glen and Cathy Morris, of RR 1 Embro, won for the best family float entered in the parade.

Dairy show
Holstein

John and Hank Hazeleger, of Embro, entered the junior champion female and the reserve junior champion female.

Almac Holstein Farms, of Embro, won for the grand champion female, the reserve grand champion female and the best udder.

Jersey

Bob Heard, of RR 8 Woodstock, entered the junior champion

See "s" — page 24

Page 8 The Daily Sentinel-Review, Wed., Sept. 19, 1984

FIRM HOLD

Six year old Drew Tubey maintains a firm grasp on the helm of his Tub of Fun at the Embro Fair.

(Staff photo by Ted Rhodes)