

Amazing grace

While the delicate moves of these Scottish folk dancers graced the stage at the Embro Highland Games on Saturday, photo at left, lone piper, Jamie Boyes, of Waterloo, filled the air

July 1984

with the music of his ancestors.

5,000 turn out to highland games

Photos by Thelma Hiuser

See-saw

It's said wood heats you twice -- first when you cut it and then when you burn it. Zorra Township councillor Jim Gibb, left, and Zorra Mayor Wallis Hammond found this out the hard way on a hot afternoon when they entered the log sawing competition at the recent Embro Highland games. The pair placed second in the contest, slicing through the log in less than a minute. Photo by Thelma Hiuser