

Oxford hospitality greets Indian bishop

India and Canada moved closer together this week when Bishop A. Chandu Lal and his wife toured Oxford County for a first-hand glimpse at rural Ontario. Active in the Church of North India, the Lals are on a two-month Canadian tour to foster better ties between Canada and India. In the photo at left, Charles Lupton, centre, of RR 1
