

The Beacon Herald / Wednesday July 26 / 1989

Harrington party marks woman's 90th birthday

By Thelma Hiuser
district correspondent

HARRINGTON — Mary Innes, of RR 3 Embro, celebrated her 90th birthday Sunday at Broadview United Church in Harrington.

Her family, friends and neighbors gathered to help celebrate the occasion.

Mrs. Innes was born July 23, 1899, in West Zorra Township. She is the daughter of the late Adam Green and Jessie Nicholson. She had three sisters and one brother but is now the last surviving member of her family.

Mrs. Innes and her husband Roy, now deceased, farmed at RR 3 Embro all their married lives until their retirement to their new home at the edge of Harrington.

Mrs. Innes is a member of the Broadview United Church and United Church Women in Harrington. She is a charter member since 1922 of the Brooksdale Women's Institute and a life member.

In the past, she enjoyed crocheting and fancy work. She still makes her own meals and enjoys visits with family and friends.

Mary Innes

Mrs. Innes had three sons, Mac and daughter-in-law Jackie, Robert and Ronald (both deceased), daughters-in-law Jean and Joyce, 12 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.