

By Thelma Hiuser
district correspondent

EMBRO — "Together in Jesus name" was the theme of a very successful Vacation Bible School held in Embro recently.

The interdenominational school was organized by both Knox United and Knox Presbyterian churches.

There were 142 children registered for the two-week school. A daily puppet show by Sue Ballentine-Topp, Norma Taylor and Allison Lupton was a highlight each morning.

With her guitar and a great deal of talent and enthusiasm, Allison Lupton led the children in song each morning and in several numbers for the Sunday service on July 26.

Susie Strickler led in morning devotions and prayer before the day's activities began.

On Wednesday, July 29, the children presented their favorite skits and songs for their parents, grandparents and friends. Rev. Andrew Turnbull, as chairman, welcomed the audience and in- day" but due to the inclement troduced the leaders. weather, videos were shown Friday morning was "fun in both churches.

Song leader Allison Lupton, with her guitar, leads the sing-song at the Vacation Bible School at Embro United Church.

Photo by Thelma Hiuser

Embro Vacation Bible School con't

Aug 1992